FALK BONITZ RAFIQUE

PIANIST COMPOSER EDUCATOR

ARTIST PROFILE

German pianist-composer Falk Bonitz Rafique brings early classical training into a contemporary jazz language shaped by European Romanticism, Latin Jazz, and modern acoustic jazz.

Across solo concerts, theatre, live cinema, trio repertoire, and international collaborations, his work carries both discipline and expressive freedom.

MODERN JAZZ TRIO

THE GREAT GAME

Formed by Falk Bonitz in Taiwan, The Great Game became a new outlet for his contemporary jazz writing, shaped by trio interplay and an international circle of musicians.

The Great Game is not about playing safe. I wanted a trio where written music and instinct can push against each other. That friction is the whole point I believe.

SURE AS THE SUN WILL RISE

NOMINATED FOR GIMMA AWARDS TAIWAN · 2026

Falk Bonitz's second trio album and The Great Game's debut, Sure As The Sun Will Rise is a long-form trio album shaped by contrast such as beauty and struggle, darkness and release, written form and open improvisation. At its heart, this is the promise that after winter, the sun will rise again.

A great pianist & great composer.

Paul Gulda · Austrian Pianist

CRITICAL RECEPTION

"Like impressionistic paintings, colorful, fiery and a little mysterious. An electrifying and amusing album."

Concerto
Austria

"One of the most exciting bands in the German jazz scene, their own musical language, sometimes melancholic, sometimes strongly pulsating"

Jazzthing 126
Germany

"An artist of international level - beautiful articulation, flexibility, an acute sense of rhythm. A great mastery of acoustic jazz"

Alain Brunet (La Presse)
Montreal

"A fantastic, extraordinary band, complex rhythms, honest emotion and highly sensitive feeling keeps the audience in their grip from the first note."

Wormser Zeitung
Germany

"A very electrifying, entertaining concert evening, bursting with energy, beyond overly cerebral jazz."

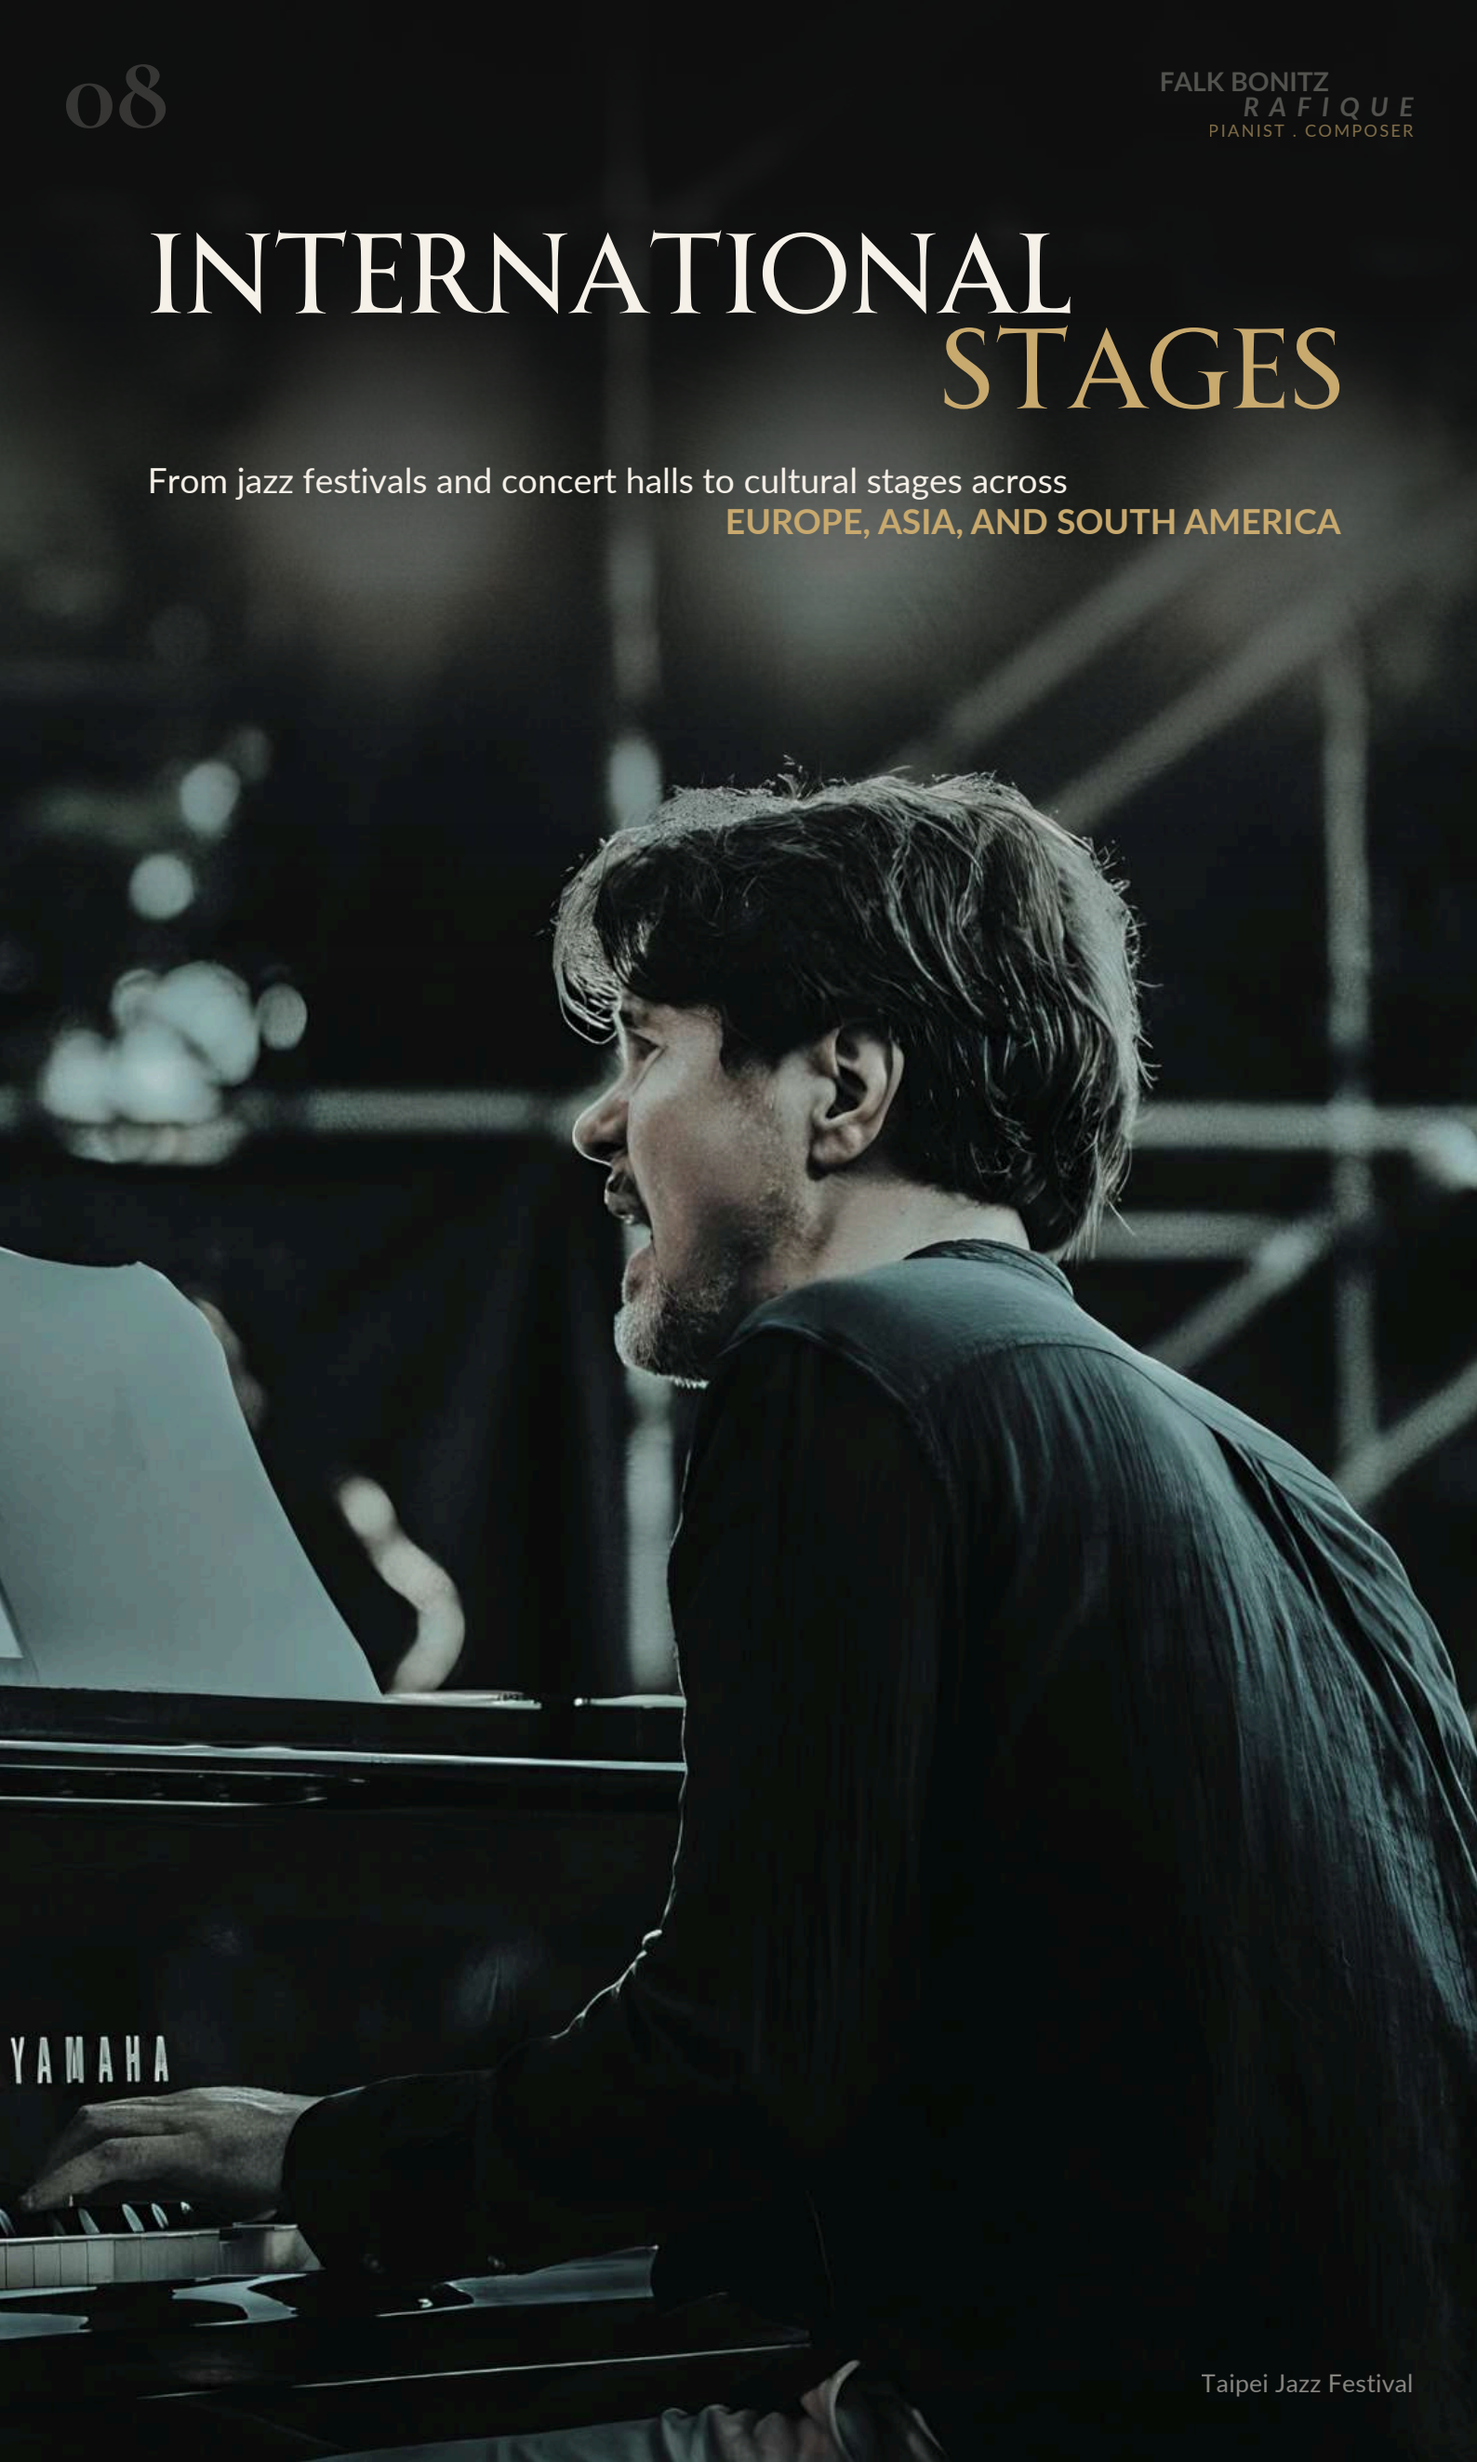

Jazz'halo
Belgium

"Falk Bonitz and Anton Pyvovarov did not just perform; they shook the room and made us feel something bigger than music."

Lahore Jazz Club

I return to the stage because I feel the music is never complete in solitude. It needs the risk of a room full of listeners and that risk gives my music its final form.

Since 2008, Falk Bonitz Rafique has worked in creative partnership with international artists across soul, theatre, jazz, pop, and classical music.

These encounters have shaped the way he carries the discipline of one musical world into the freedom of another.
